EXHIBITIONS AND EVENTS REPORT

May 2021

I am very pleased that we have been able to keep publishing our Exhibitions Reports through these turbulent times and it's nice to see the publication growing from little more than a xerox copy to an e-zine, hopefully for the next issue we will be able to produce hard copy as well.

My thanks go to all those who have contributed and to Shannon Rowan for pulling the whole thing together again.

I suppose it is just as important to know what is not happening as to know what we hope will happen. In this regard, I thank Martyn Wady for keeping the Exhibitions Calendar up to date.

I personally feel somewhat relieved that Cosmoprof Bologna has been postponed for this year and pleased that Salon International is going ahead.

I think the UK Regional Governments have done a good job recently with Legislation and vaccine rollout. But, of course, no one is safe until everyone is safe.

It is great to see the hairdressers back at work. Hopefully, this is the end of lockdowns for all our service sectors.

As always, we would welcome contributions from all our readers.

Stay safe and well. This is not the time to become complacent.

International Customer Partner's Exhibition Plans

There is still a general nervousness from all our international partners on committing to exhibitions and show events. A number of countries are planning live events from early summer, many of which are re-scheduled dates for shows that usually happen earlier in the year. There seems more appetite for shows scheduled for the autumn and later in the year with a number of distributors planning to attend their domestic shows in September and October. There is a quiet confidence that by the autumn enough people will have been vaccinated and, after the summer, cases will be at a manageable level. This is not true of all countries however and with the current rise in cases in Africa and South East Asia, there is a belief that events planned in these regions probably won't go ahead.

As of today, I've not heard of a single distributor who is currently considering traveling abroad to attend a show before next year. Most seem happy to consider visiting or exhibiting at their own domestic show to connect with their own customer base but have no confidence or desire to travel internationally.

Due to a number of factors, those that are planning to exhibit will likely do so in a fairly low-key manner. The last 12 month's impact on their businesses and cash flow is an obvious reason. In addition there's the nagging concern of another wave and a worry that visitor numbers will be low. Few are prepared to invest a lot of time, energy and money in planning for an event if there is no 100% guarantee it will go ahead and there's no assurance of an audience.

It seems that most people will look at events scheduled for late summer and autumn (as well as the general COVID situation) before making plans for next year. From most people there does seem a desire to get back out, see what's going on and meet people as and when it's safe to do so. In the short term though, the main priority is re-grouping and re-focussing their businesses after a very challenging year.

Cosmoprof North America

Cosmoprof North America (CPNA), the leading B2B trade show in the Americas, is being held 29th-31st of August at the Mandalay Bay Convention Center. In 2019, over 40,000 attendees engaged with a record-breaking 1,435 exhibitors from 43 countries to discover unique brand launches, product innovations and to form key relationships with top industry professionals and retailers.

After a long year for the hair and beauty industry, dates have now been confirmed for exhibitions going ahead and we can't wait to see customers in person again.

Professional Beauty Systems will be exhibiting their hair brands Crazy Color, FFØR and Knot Dr in Las Vegas, presenting new product launches.

Crazy Color will be showcasing the innovative Anti Bleed Spray, which prevents bleeding, prolongs fading and enhances shine.

FFØR Hair will be proud to attend Cosmoprof North America for their second time. FFØR will be showcasing their complete sustainable hair care range, including the new FFØR Hair Colour. This is a sophisticated, complete professional colour system which is vegan, ammonia, PPD and mineral oil free. The range is made up of 60 Permanent Hair Colours, 5 Developers and the High: Lift Lightening Powder.

Cosmoprof Asia

In 2021, Cosmoprof Asia celebrates its 25th anniversary, hosted at the Hong Kong Convention & Exhibition Centre (HKCEC) on the 17th – 19th of November. With around 2,000 exhibitors from international markets anticipated, Cosmopack and Cosmoprof Asia 2021 will, for this year only, be held under one roof.

Professional Beauty Systems will be showcasing OSMO, Crazy Color, FFØR, Knot Dr and Apraise in Hong Kong this year.

The OSMO flagship brand continues to grow from strength to strength, with the introduction of new lines to the ever-popular Super Collection, including Super Cool Zero Orange Shampoo, specially designed for use on salon lightened brunette - dark hair tones. The Super Silver range also saw two new additions with the ground breaking Miracle Treatment and Conditioning Foam, both infused with violet pigments to counteract unwanted yellow tones.

Apraise will be on display with its strong, sleek new visuals setting the brand apart from competitors in the professional lash and tint market. Micellar Water and Aloe Vera gel will be on show and are great additions to the range, adding to the full salon experience.

Crazy Color's Ultra Violet Shampoo is back with a brand-new look and sizing options. Another great addition to the Crazy Color range is POWER Pure Pigment Drops which unlock unlimited opportunity with vivid color. They are a versatile must have for any professional that specialises color – the options are endless with Crazy Color POWER Pigments.

Salon International

Salon International returns to the London ExCel from the 16th – 18th October. Professional Beauty Systems will be there with exciting live demos and new product launches. We are looking forward to interacting with all visitors and creating memorable performances on stage throughout this event.

The OSMO creative team will be on hand with their diverse, cutting, styling, colouring and barbering techniques.

A bright, showstopping retail area will showcase Crazy Colors vast rainbow of incredible products as well as housing stage space for the brand's Color Squad stylists to promote the brand and display their creativity.

Professional Beauty Systems are looking forward to a successful year, seeing customers and friends face to face, collaborating with our amazing brand ambassadors and finally being able to display our new products which we have been working hard to create during the past year.

Obituary

Alan Sporn
1945 – 2021

I can't remember covering an obituary before in our reports but Alan Sporn played such a big part in the exhibition scene in America and beyond that I feel his passing should be recorded here. He was of course a regular visitor to Salon International.

A Personal Tribute

It was a sad day indeed when I heard the news of Alan's passing, especially as I was powerless to pay my respects in the usual way or help comfort the family in their hour of need.

Alan was a good man. Kind and very generous. His hospitality knew no bounds.

How did we become friends? Strange really. Alan owned Spornette, the most successful professional hairbrush company in America. Our biggest competitor!

In those days I was not inclined to make friends with 'competitors'. I have Diane Carson and Julie-Anne McDowell to thank for changing my attitude for the better.

Alan and I became close friends. He living in Chicago and I in Bangor. I used to break my journey to Portland Oregon with a stopover in Chicago, sometimes staying with Alan and Barbara. Of course, we met up at the hairdressing shows all over America, in London, Hong Kong and Bologna and we always made time for each other despite the hectic show schedules.

Alan enjoyed his food and drink and lived life to the full. I suppose it is no wonder we became friends.

After his wife passed away, Alan embarked on a programme of travelling round the world to fulfil the dreams he'd had when he was too busy working. And work hard he did. On his return from one such trip to India, he got into what Indian's would call a 'sticky mess'. I was glad I was on hand to help and mobilised the family to fly to his rescue.

Having survived this incident, I thought Alan was invincible.

It is so hard to accept that he became a victim of COVID, especially having received both vaccines.

I have lost a true friend. The industry has lost a larger than life character.

But to his family, this means so much more and of course COVID restrictions prevented them honouring his memory as they would have wished.
